WHY JOIN CCVCA?

COUNTRY CLUB VIEW CIVIC ASSOCIATION

The Country Club View Civic Association (“CCVCA”) is a voluntary neighborhood association with members from many of the approximately 470 homes in the Country Club View (“CCV”) subdivision. Its primary objectives include preserving the quality of our neighborhood and surrounding areas, as well as promoting the safety, security, and civic spirit of our neighborhood. For annual dues of only $15.00 per household, you can enjoy the benefits of being part of CCVCA and help make our neighborhood a better place for all residents.

The CCVCA performs many functions, including:

- ✓ Carries out liaison with district, county, and other neighborhood civic associations.
- ✓ Provides a forum to explore community issues.
- ✓ Manages a volunteer Neighborhood Watch program.
- ✓ Addresses public park, traffic, and parking issues as they relate to CCV.
- ✓ Publishes a periodic newsletter that focuses on news and issues relevant to CCV.
- ✓ Maintains funds for future capital expenses.
- ✓ Produces a neighborhood directory of names, addresses, phone numbers, and email addresses for CCVCA members.
- ✓ Sponsors a Welcoming Committee to meet and greet new neighbors.
- ✓ Sponsors neighborhood social events and presents awards for the best decorated homes during the Christmas holiday.
- ✓ Awards college scholarships to local neighborhood high school seniors.
- ✓ Contributes to the James W. Robinson Secondary School graduation party.
- ✓ Sponsors neighborhood beautification projects, including maintenance and landscaping of the CCV entrance signs.
- ✓ Negotiates competitive prices for neighborhood services (e.g., trash removal).
- ✓ Sponsors local scout organization (Boy Scout Troop 1865).
- ✓ Promotes community yard sales twice a year.
- ✓ Sponsors the CCVCA website: www.countryclubview.org.
- ✓ Stands ready to respond and maintain communication with residents through the block captains and section leaders during a community emergency.

For annual dues of only $15.00 per household, you can enjoy the benefits of being part of CCVCA and help make our neighborhood a better place for all residents.
